Seamless and reliable meal delivery

All-in-one dashboard

Manage your meals and rides from one place with a more sophisticated, accurate and reliable platform. It's your one-stop shop to easily customise meal policies, adjust members, set up billing and track spending.

Seamless expenses

Multiple payment options include monthly billing and automatic receipt-forwarding to make sure expenses can be efficiently consolidated.

Customised programs

Create meal policies for any work occasion, from individual lunches to late-night meals. Choose ordering-time windows, spending limits and delivery locations for each group member.

Global footprint

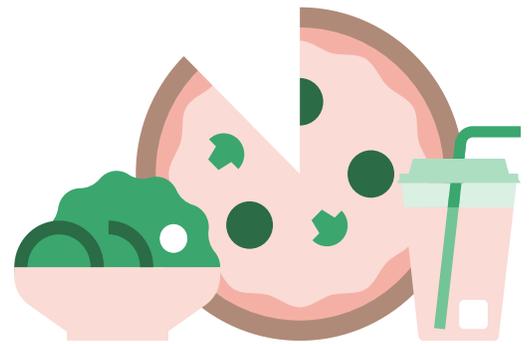

With a wide network of delivery people using the platform in 6,000+ cities and across 6 continents, your team can get food delivered in under 30 minutes on average.

Flavourful selection

Uber Eats has over 400,000 restaurant partners, including exclusive partnerships with tasty and essential brands.

Uber for Business

Food to fuel every work occasion

Lunch programs

Boost morale and help your employees spend less time searching for restaurants near the office by providing a variety of lunch options through Uber Eats.

Late nights

Reward people who work late with their favourite meals. Just set the time and day on the dashboard to keep employees within policy.

Team building

Teams that eat together achieve together. Promote collaboration and team building with corporate group ordering for employee birthdays, work anniversaries and more.

On the go

Easily define a per diem program for business travelers. Make business trips less about hunting for restaurants and expensive room service.

Impressing clients

Now you can order from any of your local favourites, so everyone is fed at meetings and customer events.

Remote work

Help your employees feel motivated, engaged and connected while working remotely with meal delivery programs.

What our customers are saying

“At GoodRx we are consistently looking for ways to acknowledge our dedicated team. Offering Uber Eats to our team is a great way to show our appreciation, as well as to help support our local economy.”

Reena Scoblionko
